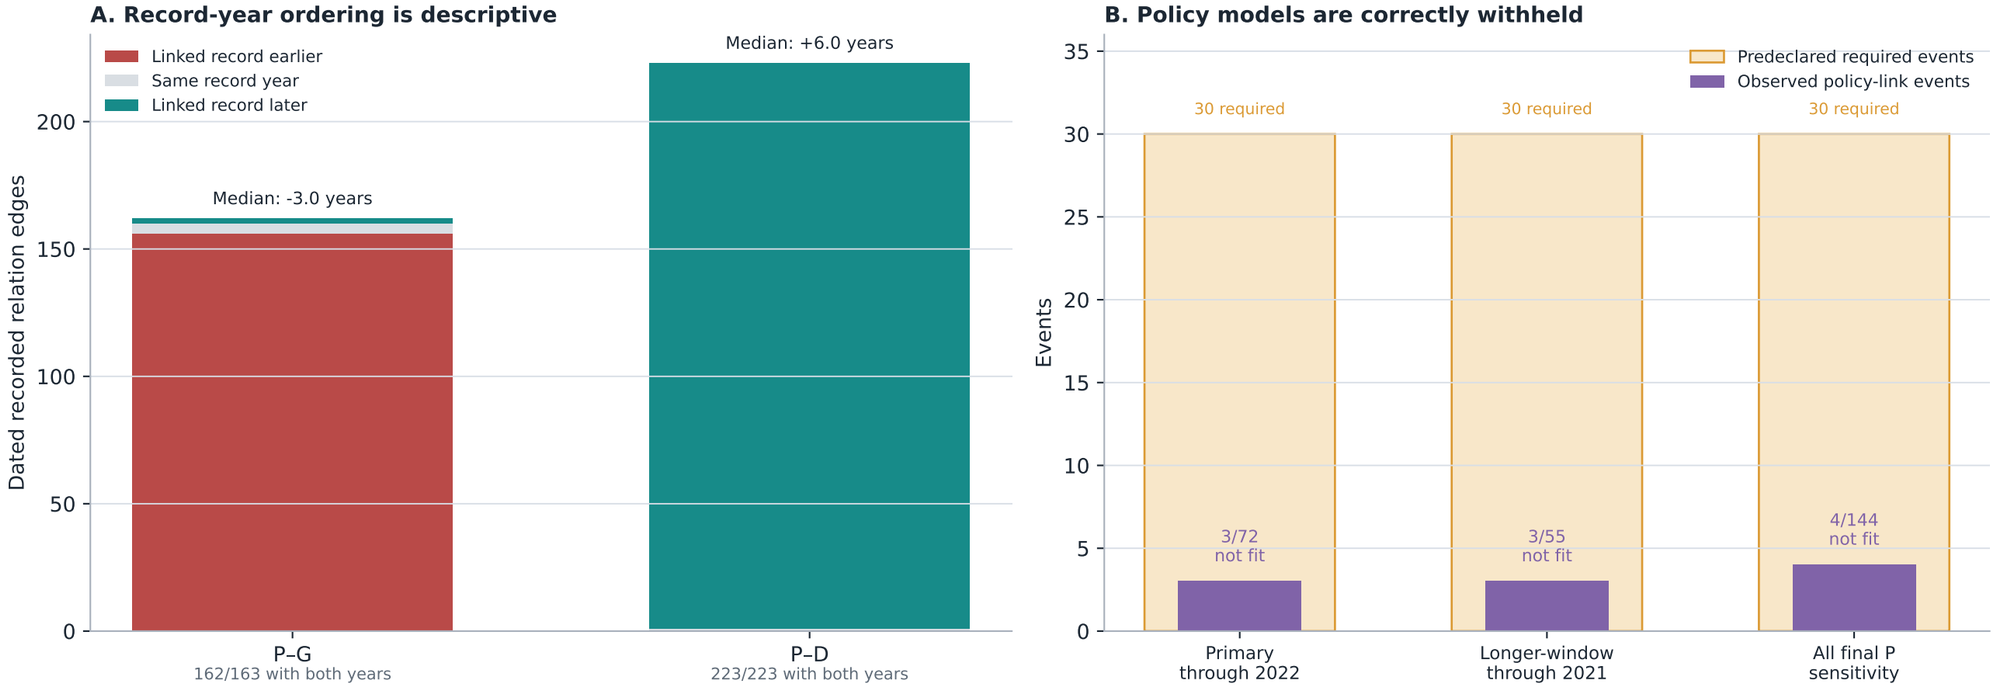
Record-year context and policy-link event adequacy



Bars include only recorded relation edges with both stored years; missing years are not imputed. Record-year differences are descriptive database dates, not causal lags or time to impact. Sparse policy links are reported descriptively rather than replaced with an opportunistic sparse regression.